

ARLIS study day: The bigger picture: diversity and art libraries

Friday 26th February

Chelsea College of Art & Design, London

This study day is aimed at art and design librarians who would like to increase their knowledge of supporting increasingly diverse user populations. The day will include information, advice and ideas about making your library services to the arts more inclusive. Topics will include dyslexia, widening participation and deaf awareness with practical information and advice from researchers and practitioners in the field.
